THE DARK DAY OF 1780.

Candles at Noonday---The Phenomenon described by an Eye-Witness---Nature Hushed in Terror---A Night of Total Blackness.

[From the Cape Ann Advertiser.]

The 12th of May, 1780, was a remarkable one in the annals of New England, on account of the thick darkness that overspread the land, like a funeral pall. It was a day long to be remembered and talked of by those who witnessed the strange, and at that time fearful phenomenon. There was much writing upon and discussion of the subject at the time, and afterward, but I believe no satisfactory conclusion was ever arrived at as to its cause. There were some who thought that it must have proceeded from a total eclipse of the sun, that had from some cause escaped the calculations of mathematicians and astronomers, but that was easily shown to be impossible by facts and figures.

It was then the darkest and most hopeless period of the war of the Revolution, and it was thought by many of the despondingand discouraged to be significant of the end of that which then appeared to them a hopeless struggle. Some of the more sanguine insisted that as the hour before the dawn was always the darkest, so this strange and portentous gloom was but the prelude to the bright dawn of Liberty and Independence that was soon to follow.

The father of the writer was then a boy of thirteen years, and was at work with his father and brother, planting or preparing the ground. It was a dull, hazy morning, and as the time passed it gradually thickened, and by 10 o'clock the increasing darkness began to be quite apparent. They kept on with their work, and as the gloom increased they observed that he would pause once in a while and look intently all around the horizon and over head, but made no remark until he directed the oldest boy to go to the barn and turn the horse and all the cattle that were inside out into the open lot, and to close and secure every door and window. It appeared that he was apprehensive that some sudden and furious gust or squall would soon manifest itself, and that the animals would be in less danger out in the field than inside the building.

Still the darkness grew thicker and deeper until presently he said they might as well quit work for the present. On reaching the house the mother and sister were about their usual duties, pale and silent.—Little was said except an occasional remark or direction in a low tone. No one seemed inclined to conversation or demonstration of any kind. Soon dinner was ready, with candles lighted the same as at night, but not a morsel was eaten. A dead silence seemed to prevade all nature, broken only by occasional bleating of a lamb, or the distant lowing of the kine, which wandered about restless and uneasy. The domestic fowls seemed to be inclined to come to the conclusion that it it was not night, they could put no other construction upon it, so, after clucking over the matter for a while, they went to roost. And thus the long and dreary hours passed away.—Along in the afternoon the veil was lifted in some degree, and at the time of sunset it was about the same as ordinary dull and cloudy day.

The light which followed was, it is said, as dark proportionately as was the day. It was the perfect "blackness and darkness." Not the faintest outline of any object could be discerned against the sky. A light would penetrate it but a little way, and then seem to disclose but a solid wall of blackness around.

A CHALLENGE TO THE GOVERNMENT—Swayze Demands a Hearing—Innocence Must be Vindicated.—The recent Turner investigation established, beyond all controversy, one of two propositions: That Turner is a counterfeiter of currency of the United States, a crime punishable with the severest penalties, or Swayze, the principal witness against him, is guilty of the basest and most wicked perjury, alike punishable by severe penalties. This fact it is impossible for the civil authorities to ignore. We have already charged that certain officials under the Government interested themselves to shield Turner from a just retribution for his crimes. If the Government would refute this charge, it becomes necessary that it should come forward and thoroughly fathom the pretended mysteries connected with this case. J. Clarke Swayze has been impeached, and the release of the prisoner throws the onus of suspicion upon him. If he is guilty, he has a right to be so declared by competent authority. If Turner is guilty, it is as clearly the duty of the Government to protect itself aginst such innovations upon its most sacred interests—its Treasury.

This is not the only consideration; this question of guilt or innocence of the different parties is made to have political bearing, and will be used by the Democracy against the Republican party until the truth is brought to light and the guilty punished. Truth cannot be successfully assailed. When the guilty party meets his fate, the moral of the lesson will be felt and profited by. We, therefore, most earnestly demand that the Government press this matter to the bottom—bring forth the various threads of testimony already exposed, and hunt down every agent and accomplice in this pretended great mystery. It becomes incumbent upon the Government to do this, inasmuch as the fact exists that a certain number of bank bills were stolen from the Treasury, and that these bills have been signed and circulated. This, in addition to the fact that evidence enough to convict does exist, it seems to us, should be a sufficient motive for the Government. Aside from this, it is its duty to show that the witnesses so far in the case, are perjurers and liable to all the penalties, or it is its duty to protect those witnesses from the charges that are now heaped upon their. On the other hand, if Turner is innocent, he being an officer of the Government, it is its duty to come to his relief, and by proper and thorough action remove the suspicions that now attach to him. Again we say, and that too, in behalf of J. Clarke Swayze, the principal witness, that we not only ask, but we, in the name of all honest and fair-minded citizens, demand that the Government give its attention to this matter at once, and in such a determined way as to bring to punishment, either the accused or the witness.—Swayze's American Union.

NOTES OF SOUTHERN TRAVELS.

An English gentleman, Mr. Bower Wood, of Long Island City, has just returned from a journey to the South, and reports as follows: We found throughout North Carolina and Virginia every disposition to welcome immigration, to put aside politics, and an earnest wish to embrace every Northern suggestion and improvement.—The negroes are disappointed because they do not each get a forty acre farm and a mule, but as a rule they are never troublesome or dangerous. In truth they require the incentive of the master's eye, or else a faithfully fulfilled contract, by the piece or acre, just as white laborers do. Their wages vary from $7 to $10 per month, and rations, which do not cost altogether more than $10 per month more. The females make excellent in door servants, and can be hired at nearly half the above. We found all portions of the States above-named healthy, and with the advantage over the Western section of nearness to market, plenty of splendid timber, and good water. We felt the heat no more than in New York, and farmers assured us that they could do that hardest of all work—the hoeing of cotton—all day in the hottest sun. The quality of the land is various, but equal to any section North, that we know of, and wherever proper cultivation, rotation of crops, and manures are applied, the results are an excess of Northern products on the same area. Japan clover, white and red clover, and the grasses can generally be grown, white cotton at the present price, and the vineyard, which is being rapidly inaugurated, render a farmers success speedy and certain. The prices of lands vary from $3 to $30 per acre. In the cities and towns large-sized lots can be got from $50 to $500 (?) Houses and grounds which cost five times their present price, can be readily obtained. Even in the mineral regions land is still very cheap. We saw a large fruit farm, only four miles from Raleigh, rich in gold and plumbago, with good house and 180 acres, that could now be bought for $1,500. The owner was the former postmaster, and a much respected man. One fourth cash, and three to five years' credit, are the general terms; while many properties can be hired, with an option of purchase, at a stated price agreed upon beforehand. Even more laborers are readily welcomed, for their energy is much needed, and they form a check upon the negro, who, as the Rev J. B. Smith, of Raleigh, remarked to us, has at present no proper standard by which to measure a day's work. Mechanics and artizans would find nice openings and be free from much of that wear and tear which characterizes the struggle for life in more inclement latitudes.

By taking a trip to Norfolk, Portsmouth, Richmond, Lynchburg, Weldon, Raleigh and Asheville, the intending emigrant may readily satisfy himself as to which is the best spot on which to settle according to his capacity and capital. Cheap return tickets are issued by the Virginia State Land Company, whilst the famous North Carolina Land Company, of which our genial New Yorker, A. J. Birecker, is a director, have issued tickets for the round trip from Boston or New York for $24. This is a most respectable and bona fide association. W. S. Kingsland of New York, is a resident director at Raleigh, and very acceptable to Southern settlers, while the Hon. R. W. Best, late Secretary of State, is Past Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge in North Carolina, and by his urbanity and fairness will be found equally deserving of confidence. We heartily wish all such societies full success. We are assured that the present farms are too large for the means of present holders. They will cheerfully part with a portion to enhance the value of the remainder and to secure a good neighborhood. That this season will be a happy one for the South we do fully believe.—Some immigration and capital have already taken place; the full stream will soon follow. The present wheat crop is all safe, and the best known for many years. Oats and vegetables are more than an average crop, tobacco is fair, and though the season is backward, cotton is generally in blossom and the yield at the present prices promises to be the most enriching of any that has occurred of late years. The South will soon be fully recuperated. Norfolk will soon be a busy entrepot worthy of its magnificent harbor, and Wilmington must have her share of direct intercourse. It ought to be the earnest and daily prayer and work of all good Americans to do all that in them lies to help forward this intermixing and prosperous knitting together of all parts of our country.—N. Y. Tribune.

ANDREW JOHNSON AND THE U. S. SENATE.—We could not, before the late election in Tennessee, give credit to the reports that it was likely to result in sending Ex President Johnson back to the United States Senate. But it really seems that the prediction, which looked so extravagant a few weeks ago, is about to be fulfilled. The returns show the election to the Legislature of but few politicians known as Senter Republicans. A majority of the members of both branches are said to be Democrats or Conservatives. The Stokes men are few, and the Senter Republicans still fewer—the Democrats having a majority over both. In a number of counties, particularly in East Tennessee, Democratic candidates were elected as avowed Johnson men.

It does not, therefore, now seem at all impossible that Andrew Johnson will, in 1871, succeed Fowler as Senator from Tennessee, or, in the not improbable event of a vacancy occurring before that time, that he will sooner go back to Washington to wage battle for the constitution with his adversaries of the last two years, but on a different arena. That he will be "a thorn in their sides" cannot be doubted. There is no man in the Union whom the Radical leaders would not rather have in the Senate than Andrew Johnson, and we would rather have him there than any other man in the Union. As Colfax said of Stanton's restoration to the War Department, we may say of President Johnson's return to the United States Senate—

"Roll swift around, ye wheels of time,
And bring the joyful day."

Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer.

The Radical negro majority of Antioch Colored Church, Culpeper county, Va., expelled every member of the church who voted the Walker ticket in the late election. There have been many assaults by Radical negroes upon the Conservatives of their color, in various parts of the South, on account of their votes. But this instance of church proscription is more significant than any other demonstration in showing that the ballot has been committed to a class utterly unfit to exercise it.

The people of Venice once hissed an eclipse which did not quite come up to their expectations.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Valuable Property for Sale in Raleigh and Wake County.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Court of Equity for this County, I, as Commissioner, will sell at the Court House, to the highest bidder, all of the Real Estate of the late Sarah Stronach, dec'd, to wit:
One House and Lot, in the City of Raleigh, containing two acres, more or less; said house in fair condition, has six rooms and good basement. On the Lot there is a very fine Well of Water and all necessary out-houses. The fences are nearly all of new and sound timber, and the soil in fine condition. There are quite a number of Shade and Fruit Trees on the premises. Also a Lot containing three-fourths of an acre, more or less, near the above mentioned one. Both Lots are on Hargett Street, just beyond the city Cemetery, and on the direct road to the "State Fair Grounds." Also a Tract of Land about five miles from the City, which is very well timbered and adjoins the lands of W. E. Pierce and others. This property will be sold on the 28th day of August A. D. 1869.
Terms made known on day of sale.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, AUGUST 16, 1869.

"IS THE SENTINEL SATISFIED?"

Tom spieks the Standard, of Saturday morning, after beating round the bush in its usual evasive manner, in pretending to answer some plain interrogatories propounded by us the day before. We are not satisfied with the Standard's definition of its position, and cannot consent to enter its school, nor endorse its philosophy or politics, while the same are in such a vague and undefined state. Indeed, we do not believe the Standard knows exactly its own position, or has itself any clearly defined policy, just at this time. And here are our reasons for thinking so: The sympathy of that paper was with the Wells party of Virginia before the election; about the time of the election, though the fact had been intimated very clearly before, it came out beyond question or cavil, that the Walker Conservative Republicans of that State were acting upon a clear understanding with the President and his Cabinet in the plan adopted for the canvass in Virginia; whereupon, the Standard immediately tried to ignore its former proclivities, and plant itself upon the Walker platform.—This it might do, as there was a seeming agreement of the administration platform which the Standard swears by, and the Conservative Republican platform of the Walker men in Virginia; only the Standard had to put up a ridiculous summersault to attain that position; but that, with such a paper, was a mere bagatelle—it had become used to that species of gymnastics long ago.

But Senter was nominated and elected in Tennessee on the same platform that Walker was in Virginia, and the Standard, in order to avoid, being too far behind, in this instance, got a little too far ahead; it "declared in favor of Senter before the election," thinking, poor unfortunate, that it it was so agreeable and easy, and prospectively popular, to ride the administration and the Walker nags, both, at the same time, it could perform the same feat with the administration and the Senter nag.

But the administration had won a lose in the way, in Tennessee, that had escaped the eye of the Standard. There was no Andrew Johnson in Virginia, but there was one in Tennessee, and that made all the difference. No doubt the administration, when it saw Tennessee following on in the liberal course of Virginia, and that Mississippi and Texas were likely to do the same, felt, like the Standard does for having "declared for Senter before the election" that it had slightly "put its foot in it," by compromising on the liberal and conservative policy which was carried in that State. Hence the administration gave unmistakable evidence that it had no idea of making a practice of doing as it had done in the case of Virginia, and the Boutwell and Cresswell letters were written, and assurance was given that the sympathies of the President and his council were with the proscriptive Stokes party.

To place the matter still further beyond doubt, the President has given it out plainly that he will countenance no Conservative movement in Mississippi or Texas, and has backed up the declaration by retaining the notorious Ames in his position in the first named State.

The Standard has been trying to ride two horses at once, with a leg upon each, namely the administration of President Grant, or "the government" as that paper designates it, on the one side, and the Conservative Republican party that elected Walker in Virginia and Senter in Tennessee, on the other. So long as the ride lay only through the Old Dominion, this seemed feasible, because the two pairs seemed to trot close together, but when they come to Tennessee, they begin to separate, and the position gets to be an uneasy one. Before he gets to Mississippi the Standard, should he still try to keep his legs in their present position, will split wide open.

All this makes us dissatisfied with the quibbling answers of the Standard. It is like the fellow who attempted to teach a singing school but couldn't sing himself. It professes to be a guide to others, and is, itself, completely lost in the fog. We can't trust such a guide.

The case stands thus: The Standard is with the President and his administration: The President and his administration was with the Walker Conservative Republicans of Virginia: The Standard was with Senter, and the Conservative Republicans who elected him, in Tennessee; the administration is not—(We give the Standard just one week to make a somersault on this question.) The same Conservative Republican party in Mississippi will nominate Judge Dent for Governor—the administration will oppose him, as it did Senter (where will the Standard take its position on this question?

We call attention to the prophecy we here make, that the Standard will "crawfish" out of the position it has taken with regard to Senter and the Tennessee Conservative Republicans, in ten days; that it will do the same in regard to the Walker Conservatives of Virginia, before the first day of September. We further predict that the "Standard" will remain perfectly mum, or take sides against the Conservative Republicans of Mississippi, and against Judge Dent, should he be nominated for Governor by that party; or against any other man they may nominate. It is obliged to do as we have prophesied, or drop the administration; which we have no idea it will do, because Grant has, recently, more plainly than ever, shown himself determined on that proscription and tyranny so congenial to the "Standard" and those whose mouth-piece it is.

GRANT DENOUNCED BY A RADICAL ORGAN.—At all events, this (Texas) quarrel is purely local. Both parties support the fifteenth amendment. Both profess sympathy with Grant's administration. There is no reason to doubt their sincerity upon these issues. The one ground of difference is the amnesty of rebels. And with reference to this it is perfectly apparent that Hamilton holds the view most popular among moderate and liberal-minded Republicans, and certain to be adopted in every Southern State. His election seems to be a foregone conclusion. If so, it is greatly to be hoped that the mistake will not be made at Washington of forcing him into an attitude of seeming antagonism with the administration, when he professes, and probably feels, an earnest desire to act in harmony with it. Quite enough has already been done in the way of interference with local quarrels, and the rejection of proffered sympathy. If Boutwell and Cresswell undertake to repeat in Texas the blunder they made in the case of Tennessee, let us hope the President will take pains to let the country know that they act upon their own responsibility, and do not pledge the Executive by their opinions.—Albany Journal.

A REMARKABLE LUNATIC.—The Pall Mall Gazette tells this story:

"The intellectual activity of a certain class of inmates is curiously illustrated in the report on the lunatic asylum of Ireland, which has lately been printed and laid before Parliament. A man named Joseph Langfrey escaped from the Central Asylum with two other patients, none of the party being looked upon as lunatics by the medical officers, although confined there as criminal lunatics. Mr. Langfrey was the leader of the fugitives, and is described as being of an extraordinarily clever and ingenious mind. He could do things quite beyond what men in general can perform, and his cleverness was even exceeded by his versatility. He was a good shoemaker, a tailor, a weaver. He made from a scrap of iron a key by which he could open the door of his division. He put together a wooden sewing-machine of his own contrivance, with which he made clothes for himself; and his mind, just before his escape, seemed to be intent on improving this machine that there was little apprehension of his attempting to escape. His career, it is stated, before he came to the asylum, was most extraordinary. He had been in the British army, in the French army, in the French navy, and had been in British, German, and Russian prisons. He had a fair grammatical knowledge of French, knew something of German, and was completely self taught; his age, although he had passed the various phases of existence above described, was only twenty-seven. He spoke well and reasonably, the great defect in his character being a fickleness of purpose. He had that rambling disposition that is never sated with travel and adventure; and if his principles were good and upright he would in all probability have had a distinguished career in life. Langfrey was, in fact, not unlike one of Ouida's heroes. No trace of him has yet been found."

A MOTHER'S PRESENCE OF MIND.—A recent issue of the New Orleans Bulletin contains the following:

"As the family of a merchant, consisting of his wife, two little daughters, and a grandmother of the children, were seated on the gallery of their residence, the children playing, a dog, which had been a pet, and which was much attached to the girls, was seen approaching the party, foaming at the mouth, and with other evident signs of madness. The mother seized her children, rushed into a sleeping apartment, and threw them on the bed, and got in herself after them. The dog followed, but the lady took up a chair, and with it defended herself and her precious charge successfully against the furious attempts of the animal to leap on the bed. Meantime the grandmother had escaped from her perilous situation into another part of the house. At last the dog left the room and went on the gallery, when the mother rushed to the door, and closing it, secured him where he was. A policeman was called in and ineffectually attempted to shoot the brute with his own pistol, whereupon the courageous lady procured one of her husband's for him, told him 'that will shoot,' and, after five or six fires, the dog was dispatched.

RANSOMED.—The Nashville (Tenn.) Banner says: "William Hill, whom we mentioned a day or two ago as having been kidnapped and carried off into the mountains of White County by the notorious Budd Carter and a band of his friends, who demanded two thousand dollars ransom, has returned to Murfreesboro. Friends of Mr. Hill, fearing that the desperadoes would put into execution the threat they had made against his life, if the money was not forthcoming, made up the amount and left it where the notorious Budd directed. This is certainly the most high-handed outrage which has taken place in our State for a very long time. Many people were tempted to doubt the statement we first made about this matter, so incredible did it seem. Additional confirmation, with this last piece of intelligence which we have given above perfectly corroborate the first news we received. So it seems that we are to have in Tennessee regular banditti of the Italian stamp, who can kidnap people, carry them to dangerous and almost inaccessible haunts and, under pain of the murder of their prisoners, exact large sums of money from friends and relatives."

STRANGE.—About three years ago, Althea Virginia Jones, daughter of Nancy Jones of this town, a colored girl of the highest standing, aged about 14 years, commenced loosing her speech. For many months she seemed troubled with a shortness of breath, and speaking some words in a loud tone her voice faltered to a whisper. Eighteen months ago she became so that she could not even whisper, and in this state remained until a few days before her death on the 4th inst., when she seemed to recover her voice in a measure, and was enabled to ask for anything she wanted.

The case of Althea Virginia Jones was truly as distressing as it was singular. Her disease baffled all medical science, and nothing that could be done for her seemed to avail her any good.—Milton Chronicle.

A Universalist minister who was a member of the last Ohio Legislature, and who wishes to go again, received the following notice from a local paper: "Politically, he is dead to all eternity. Clever man, though, and neighborly; but as a politician, he scatters awfully. He's too wide at the muzzle."

STATE NEWS.

Lemuel Jones, colored, was held to bail in $100, in Wilmington, to answer for stealing 18 bushels pea-nuts.

Wilmington received, in one day last week, 213 casks spirits turpentine, and 557 barrels rosin. The Star says the stock on hand is light.

The profits arising from the street railway in Wilmington is gratifying.

The Wadesboro Argus mentions a great revival of religion at Deep Creek in Anson county.

Election returns in Anson show a Conservative gain and victory.

The skeletons found under Crafty Johnston's shoe shop floor in Warrenton, are said to have been deposited there many years ago by an M. D. who occupied the house as an office.

There are twenty prisoners in Wayne County jail.

The Commissioners of Goldsboro' are going to have the public Cemetery fixed up.

The old "Granger Hotel," in Goldsboro' has changed its name to the "Exchange Hotel," and its management passed from the hands of Mr. T. A. Granger in those of Messrs. Murphy and Jones.

A Mr. Koess was jailed in Warrenton last week, in default of paying $19 cost in a case tried before a Magistrate.

The ladies of the Episcopal congregation of Warrenton gave a Concert in that town last Friday night, for the benefit of the Church.

The County authorities of Warren are repairing the Court House in Warrenton, by bracing the walls, which have shown a tendency to bulge out.

Books have been opened in Fayetteville for subscriptions to the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad.

They are getting up a Company in Fayetteville to purchase a steam fire engine.

John Smith, colored, was hung in Pittsboro,' on the 6th instant, convicted of murder at last term of the Superior Court for Chatham.

Judge Howard, of Edgecombe, has consented, as we learn from published correspondence in the Wimington Journal, to deliver the Annual Address before the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, in Novem ber next.

BRANCH RAILROAD.—A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal advocates the construction of a branch Railroad from Warsaw, on the W. & W. Railroad, to the town of Clinton in Sampson county.

CAPT. SAMUEL PRATT, a hard working, industrious man, in Wilmington, had his house entered by robbers on Thursday night last, and $60 in money, all he had, stolen.

EDITORIAL FRACAS.—The Local Editor of the Wilmington Journal larruped the Editor of the Wilmington Post, last Tuesday, for gross insults offerred through the columns of the Post. We think James of the Journal did exactly right. We heard of the affair on Wednesday last but did not think it a proper subject for newspaper paragraphs.

MURDERERS AND ROBBERS CAPTURED.—We are rejoiced to learn that one of the murderers of the late Sheriff King, of Robeson county, was captured and lodged in jail a few days since. Also, that, on the 10th instant, another of the band of robbers who have so long proven a terror to the good people of Robeson was arrested and, after examination before a Justice of the Peace, committed to jail. The authorities now entertain no donut that they will be able to capture the entire gang, and to find testimony sufficient to convict them of the many horrible crimes they have committed during the past two years.—Wil. Star.

Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Surprise is expressed here by parties thoroughly posted in Mississippi political affairs, and who have had conferences with the Executive on the subject, that Gen. Grant should have stated, as reported in the Tarbell interview, that "Gen. Ames would have to do much and more serious things than had been charged" before he (Ames) would subject himself to removal from the command of Mississippi. What more serious charges, from a political standpoint, could be made against Gen. Ames than has been set forth in affidavits filed with the President it is difficult to preceive.

It appears that five affidavits, made by as many responsible gentlemen of high standing and position in Mississippi—one of them United States district attorney for that State—were presented to President Grant by these gentlemen and others, composing a delegation of conservative republicans. In these affidavits General Ames is charged with using his position as military commander of Mississippi for his own personal interests and political advancement, and the affidavits all concur in stating that General Ames said in their hearing and to them that he intended to take advantage of the present favorable opportunity and procure his election to the United States Senate. In these charges there is no equivocation, and the affidavits have been carefully considered by the President and never assailed. * * * *

HOW BEAU HICKMAN SAVED HIS WARDROBE.—In connection with the recent destruction by fire of Canterbury Hall, in Washington, the correspondent of a New Orleans paper mentions the circumstance that the famous Beau Hickman occupied a room in a building adjoining the Canterbury, and that the firemen, by superhuman efforts, managed to save Hickman's wardrobe. It seems that at the time of the fire Beau had not laid off his clothes; that the firemen brought him fully dressed out of the window, and so saved the entire wardrobe of Beau Hickman.

Near the residence of Mr. Robeson, in Austin, Texas may be seen a large and thrifty mustang grape, bearing acorns. The vine is supported by a black jack, and has a plentiful crop of its natural fruit. In addition thereto, it produces perfect acorns from its joints. This hybird performance has been inspected by a score of our citizens during the past week. Texas is the land of strange growths.

Sitka, in Alaska, is notable as the point where the traveler around the world either gains or loses his day of the week. A Russian reaching it on eastward journey celebrates his seventh day Sabbath here, while the Californian going westward finds business suspended on his Saturday.

A very small pattern of a man lately solicited the hand of a fine buxom girl. "Oh, no," said the fair lady, "I can't think of it for a moment; the fact is, Tommy, you are a little too big to put in a cradle, and a little to small to be put in a bed."

The manual labor system at Cornell University works to a charm. One student supports himself by cabinet-making, another by painting, another by photography, while some work on the farm; and another, who sweeps the rooms and makes fires, has taken the first prize in Science and German.

BEGGING.

Since the war, beggars have become so common among us that their tales of woe and suffering scarcely excite any concern in the community. We are constantly meeting a little boy who begs us for "five cents to buy something to eat—that mother is sick at home and father is dead, &c."

Then along comes an old woman, moping as if she were upon the verge of starvation, and with pleading look asks: "Mister, won't you give me just five cents to buy a loaf of bread?"

And then an old man passes and hands us a paper setting forth the fact that he has recently had the misfortune to lose his house by fire, and, "old and crippled, he is turned out of house and home with nothing to eat."

And all want aid. But are they really objects of charity?

We put ourself to the trouble to ascertain the facts with regard to the fatherless little boy "whose mother was sick at home," and the result was, that the father was living and able-bodied and the other was not and had not been sick.

In the case of No. 2, the old woman is a habitual drunkard and spends all the money, she gets by begging, at the grog shop.

And so too in the case of No 3. The old man had lost no house by fire but, like the woman, begs for money to spend for whisky.

This thing of begging is becoming a nuisance in our community and the authorities should see that it were abated.—If persons are really suffering they should at once be cared for, and well cared for; but the pests who beg for money to buy whisky, or are making begging a profession, should be taken up and put to work.

An old man came into our office the other day and enquired for us, saying that he had a letter to us from Rev. S. D. Franklin.—The paper stated that the old man was Mr. Franklin's neighbor and that he had "happened to the misfortune of having his house burned down, &c."

Mr. Franklin was in our office the next day and pronounced the whole thing a falsehood—the old man had had no house burnt, neither had he, Mr. Franklin, written any letter to us.

With such facts before us, how are we to determine who are really objects of charity?—Friend of Temperance.

A NEW PEOPLE DISCOVERED IN AFRICA. In the southwestern portion of Africa is a tract of about 300 miles in breadth, from north to south, and between 400 and 500 in width, from east to west, laid down on the maps as Herero Land or Damara Land. It extends from the Cunene River, on the north to the Walfish Bay on the south, and from the coast to Lake Ngami in the interior. Very few Europeans have ever visited it: three elephant hunters only, between 1857 and 1864, Anderson, whose works on 'Lake Ngami,' etc., are so well known, Green and Smuts. Anderson was so well pleased with the country that he purchased a large tract of land there, and raised some thousands of cattle. He died there in the early part of the present year.

There are two races inhabiting the country, the Bechuanas, who occupy some kraals or villages in the central and northern part, but who are in a dependent condition, and the Ovas, of several tribes, (Ovambo, Ovarkwels, Ovambesutieru) Ovamguari, Ovaknenama, Ovambuere, &c., a red race, with long hair—curly, but never wooly—regular features, and fine forms. These are the ruling race, and exhibit a high degree of intelligence, and many characteristics which indicate their Asiatic origin. They are governed by a King—Tjikongo by name—of the Ovambo race, who resides at Ondonga. He is assisted in the government by a Council, without whose consent he cannot execute any measure. Each tribe has its Prince and its territory, and the Princes are subject to the King and Council, by whom, for any offence against the laws, they may be deposed or put to death. Each principality is divided into districts, governed by chiefs, who are amenable to the Princes, but have an appeal to the King and Council. Their roads are excellent, and each has an Inspector, whose business it is to see that every person coming into the kingdom is stopped and entertained until his name and purposes can be forwarded to the King, and permission obtained for him to travel through the country. In the case of explorers and hunters there is usually little difficulty; but traders are required to procure some responsible citizen of the country to be their guarantee that they shall deal honorably, and pay all the debts they contract.

The religion of the country is, in many respects, so much like that of the Pharisees, as to induce the belief that the Ovas belong to that race, or have been under its tuition. They are not idolaters, but believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator, who is omnipresent, omnipotent and omniscient, and whose symbols are the sun and fire, and to these they pay homage as his representatives, but offer no sacrifice to them. They keep the sacred fire constantly burning, and the Princes, who are also priests, entrust to their daughters, and sometimes to their wives, the duty of superintending these sacred fires. The Ovas also believe in the existence of a powerful evil spirit, who is not, however, omniscient nor omnipresent, and to this interference they attribute their misfortunes and accidents, but they offer no sacrifices to him. They are said to be an honest, industrious and temperate people, far more regardful of their word, and more observant of good morals than most of the African nations."

A correspondent of the New Orleans Times, writing from Jefferson, Texas, in relation to the military trial in progress here, says: "A great amount of testimony has been elicited, tending, so far, favorably to the prisoners. The prosecution is founded mainly upon the testimony of Andrew Wright, a negro, who was taken out of jail with Smith and the others, but who managed to escape, and that of Dr. Frith, who was one of the prisoners, but who turned "State's evidence." Some very racy statements were elicited a day or two ago by the defence, from a negro named Wm. Smith, who had been intended to be one of the witnesses for the prosecution. He said he was threatened with hanging if he did not swear as he was desired, and thereupon made affidavit to the effect that he was at the jail on the night of the killing, and identified various parties. But on being brought into court he stated that he was at home all the evening and substantiated the fact at his house, half a mile from town, while the shooting was going on."

One Major Ames, an extreme radical and negro school teacher at Seguin, Texas, fell in love with one of his pupils, "a quently Ethiopianess." The last Argus says: The news thereof came to the ears of the parents of the youthful maiden. Hatred burned in the bosom of her dad, who went for our Lothario. He sought the advice and a sistance of his friends. A dark cloud gathered over the hopes and fortunes of this loil dispenser of riddication. Just as our hero had retired for the night, a colored delegation waited upon him, and out of their abundant charity treated him to a coat of tar and feathers. After finishing his toilette, they velocipeded him on a rail for the space of three hours, until he was made to exclaim: "Suffer this thing to finish, and I will depart hence." He departed for parts unknown.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,
LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,
AND THE NEW
UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.
Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.
Those who have used them give testimony as follows:
"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.
"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.
"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.
"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment"—Rev. Dr. Bellows.
"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.
"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.
"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, AUGUST 16, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. HANSAN, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

THE weather at Raleigh, N. C., as indicated by the Thermometer at the office of the North Carolina Land Company, Tucker Hall, Saturday, August 14th:

9 A. M., 79. 3 P. M., 90.
12 M., 85.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Douglas Bell announces the arrival of a lot of first-class Groceries.

Messrs. Kader Biggs & Co., Norfolk, Va., offer a silver cup as a premium for the first bale of new Cotton.

L. S. Perry, Dentist, has resumed the practice of his profession. He can be found at the office formerly occupied by Dr. Babcock.

Splendid black Writing Ink for sale: J. A. Jones, Bookseller.

RALEIGH CHAPTER.—A Regular meeting of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, R. A. M. will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at the usual hour.

HIRAM LODGE.—Regular meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, A. F. M., will be held this (Monday) evening at their Lodge Room at the usual hour.

FRONT FACE.—The scaffolding in front of the new building of Mr. Wm. H. Holleman, S. W. corner of Market Square, was taken down on Saturday afternoon, leaving a very pretty front exposed to passengers along Fayetteville Street. The work on the inside is about completed, and the house will be ready for occupation in a few days.

A bunch of grapes weighing nine and a half ounces, passed through our sanctum on its way to fairer hands than ours, on Saturday morning.

PREMIUM.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Messrs. Kader, Biggs & Co., of Norfolk, offer a premium of a silver cup for the first bale of new cotton sent them.

THE Siamese Twins, Chang and Eng, with their daughters, passed up the N. C. Railroad to their home in Surry on Thursday.

We return our thanks to a friend for a copy of "A letter to the Alumni of Dartmouth College, on its hundredth Anniversary, by Nathan Lord."

ENLARGED.—The Christian Sun, published in Suffolk, Va., by Rev. W. B. Wellons, in the interest of the "Christian Church," has been considerably enlarged. It is a very zealous advocate and defender of the doctrines of its religious denomination, yet liberal toward other Christian bodies.

ILLUSTRATED ANNUAL OF PHRENOLOGY AND PHYSIOGNOMY FOR 1870, now ready—contains fifty engravings of leading Editors—Bryant, Greeley, Bennett, Brooks, Marble, Dana, Raymond, with portraits. The Male and Female Form; Why Children resemble their Parents; Gen. Grant and his Cabinet, with portraits. Physiognomy in Politics, or "Faces and Places;" Science of Conjugal Selection, Happy Marriages, Temperament in Wedlock; American Artists; The Sleep Walker; Brain Waves; Psychological; Sir Edward Landseer, Lorenzo Dow and Peggy, his wife, Royal Ladies of the French Empire, with portraits; Guizot, the Statesman; How to choose a Helpmeet; What is Man? and much more in this rich and racy Annual, which sells for 25 cents. S. R. Wells, Publisher, New York.

THE PRINTERS' CIRCULAR for August is out. Persons having to purchase printers' machinery, or funiture, will find the Circular a source of profitable information.

ON ACCOUNT of the great number of wonderful CURES of obstinate and inveterate cases of SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER DISEASE, KIDNEY AFFECTIONS, GENERAL BAD HEALTH, &c., made by the celebrated "KOSKOO," it has won the enviable reputation of being the best and most popular medicine ever discovered. It is daily prescribed by physicians, and recommended by many thousands of our best citizens. For sale by Druggists and Merchants everywhere.

Ladies suffering from any disease peculiar to their sex, can be restored to health by using DR. LAWRENCE'S "WOMAN'S FRIEND." It purifies the secretions, and restores the system to a healthy condition.

They had a "hop" at the Atlantic Hotel, Beaufort, on Friday night.

The crops are represented as very good in Jones, Onslow and other eastern Counties.

The Journal of Commerce, to which we are indebted for our news items from that section of the State, says that the authorities of Newbern refuse the youngsters the privilege of riding their velocipedes on the sidewalks of that city. They are very cruel on the young men.

The cotton worm has made its appearance in the vicinity of Goldsborough.

The North Carolinian says they have new sweet potatoes in market in Elizabeth City.

UNGRATEFUL.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce refuses to accept the offer of the Standard to turn the Times over to the Conservative party; says it would as soon take a pole cat.

THE GOLDSBORO' SUNDAY MESSENGER for this week has grown to be a "great, big" paper, and is only one dollar and a quarter a year.

The Board of Commissioners for Halifax County have decided to require the Township Clerks to give bond before entering upon their duty.

One white couple and eighteen colored took out marriage license in the County of Halifax, for the month of July.

THE DROUGHT.—The Milton Chronicle of Thursday says, vegetation in this section that escaped burning up, is now likely to freeze up. Fire is indispensible to comfort these August mornings. The earth is as dry as a chip, and we have no indication of rain in a month to come.

COTTON GINS.—When we were a little boy, the cotton of which the women made their "homespun," was seeded with the fingers, around the bright winter fire, very much "against the grain," of "as youth." The first machine for taking the seeds from cotton that we ever saw, was a very simple but effective little arrangement, constructed by Mr. Steven Pepper of Halifax county, uncle to Mr. W. R. Pepper, the present popular proprietor of the restaurant on Fayetteville street in this City. It consisted of two rollers of wood, one above the other, one of which had a crank attached, and the cotton was drawn through and the seeds left, by turning the crank.

The first cotton gin we ever heard of was owned by a Mr. Battle somewhere near, perhaps at, Rocky Mount, in Edgecombe county, and the neighbors where we lived, used to send their bags of cotton there to be picked. One neigubor would harness up his team and take parcels for himself and perhaps a dozen others. We remember, on one occasion, a lady sent some in this way to be picked, and when it came back she exclaimed "Goodness me! they have ruined my cotton—it is cut all to pieces." It is true, the earlier constructed cotton gins did cut up the staple terribly, but improvements in the saws from time to time have almost entirely overcome this defect.

So rapid and complete have been the improvement in cotton gins, that they seem now to be brought almost to perfection.—The latest we have examined is the "Gullett Steel Brush Cotton Gin," manufactured by the Mystic River Hardware Manufacturing Company, of Connecticut, of which Mr. G. T. Stronach of this City is the Agent. This gin combines many points of excellence not heretofore considered in the construction of gins, while at the same time it has one or two draw backs. It is certainly superior to any other we have examined in the arrangement of the feed-board, by which "choking" is prevented; in the process for sweeping the saws; in straightening the lint, and separating the motes from it, and in delivering it into the lint room in a light, unknotted condition, and less mangled in the process of separation from the seeds.

The draw-backs we allude to consist in the increased power required to run it, and the greater complication of the parts, which will require more intelligent operatives than many of the older gins.

This Gin is beautifully and substantially constructed, and is as far ahead of the old and roughly constructed cotton gins of forty years ago, as the present powerful and swift railroad engine, that brings Henry Epps to the Legislature from Halifax, is of the old white oak shafted sulky that Col. Andrew Joyner used to travel to Raleigh in from the same county.

Persons concerned in cotton culture, or trade, would do well to call at Mr. Stronach's, on Market Square, and examine this new claimant for public favor.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PIC NIC.—The Sunday School of the Beulah Church, Methodist, and of Hayes' Chapel, Christian, had a combined Sunday School celebration and pic nic at Beulah Church, on Friday last, which is spoken of as a most pleasant affair to all who had the good fortune to participate.

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Carden, who had been requested to deliver an address on the occasion, Mr. Moses A. Bledsoe, was called on and made a short talk which was adapted to the occasion and was well received. Short addresses were also made by Rev. Mr. Hayes, Henry Porter, Esq., of this city and others.

May they have many happy returns.

SOUTHERN PLANTER AND FARMER.—This old and popular agricultural journal, published at Richmond, Va., is out for the current month. It contains the list of premiums for the Fair of the Virginia State Agricultural Society, which is to be held at Richmond on the 2nd to 5th of November; also the schedule of premiums of the Va. Horticultural and Pomological Society, at its exhibition to be held in Richmond at the same time, and in connection with the Fair of the Agricultural Society.

THE Standard says Treasurer Jenkins has gone to the Sparkling Catawba Springs to recruit his health, after his arduous financial campaign of the last few months. We thought he looked puny, and no wonder. He has been trying, we suppose, to raise money enough to keep the extravagant State government running, and that is a job sufficient to break the constitution of the stoutest. We hope his strength will be so far restored as to enable him to lift the coupons of the State bonds this Fall.

THE MANUFACTURER AND BUILDER for August is out. It is published by Western & Co., 37 Park Row, N. Y., at $1.50 per annum. It is a large quarto of 32 pages, beautifully illustrated, and is devoted to the practical interests of industrial progress.

DE WITT'S SIXPENNY MUSIC, FOR VOICE AND PIANO.—This title, that covers a variety of musical gems, has been found, since our first notice of its low priced yet valuable treasures of music and song, to be all that Mr. De Witt has represented it to be. We have noticed already twelve pieces which have entered the popular heart.

Mr. Tucker, who is the popular Editor of these songs, has given us for No. 13,

"Tassels on the Boots."—Nearly everybody has been singing this song for some time past.

No. 14. "The Soft Dew is Sleeping."—By George Baker. Is a lively, sentimental and serious song, remarkable for its tender beauty and delicacy of expression.

No. 15. "Tommy Dodd."—Is another favorite. Written by Grace Clarke.

No. 16. "When the Roses Flow."—By C. B. Allen. It is sweet, sentimental and delicious in its melody.

This is the last published number of the Series; but Mr. De Witt's enterprise is steadily bringing forward all the new songs which become the rags in the "great metropolis," and elsewhere.

Address R. M. De Witt, 18 Frankfort St., N. Y.

GENERAL NEWS.

Retired policemen in New York receive $300 pension.

The public schools of Boston and the land they occupy cost within a fraction of four million dollars yearly.

Dan Rice is building a barn at Girard, Pennsylvania, which will cost $20,000.

The coinage at the Branch Mint in San Francisco for July was $1,040,001; since January 1, was $6,00,000.

A Chicago paper mildly and in saint-like terms protests that German brass bands are not adjuncts of a Christian Sabbath.

A steam shovel, capable of doing the work of one hundred men, has been put in use on one of the Illinois railroads for the purpose of loading cars with gravel.

The Piute Indians accuse the whites of having changed the climate of Nevada. They say that it rains now more than before the coming of civilization.

The Overton Hotel, at Memphis was sold at commissioners sale on Monday for $124,000 cash, H. A. Pattee being the purchaser.

A Nashville detective estimates that there are over 1,100 murderers loose in Tennessee.

Hon. John C. Breckinridge has resumed the practice of the law at Lexington.

There is only one Protestant place of worship in New Mexico.

St Louis was alarmed the other day by a drunken Indian who ran through the streets, brandishing a tomahawk.

The suspension bridge at Niagara Falls is pronounced unsafe by eminent engineers, and many travellers avoid crossing it.

The ground on which the Nashville Female Academy stands was purchased July 4, 1816, for $1,500. It is now worth, including improvements, over $200,000.

The price paid by General Grant for a cottage at Long Branch is reported to be $40,000.

From a herd now in the west of Kansas, an ox has been slaughtered the net weight of which dressed, was 10,000 pounds—more than 12,000 gross. This monster was fattened on the grasses of the plains, and never was fed a spear of hay or a grain of corn.

According to the Spanish journals, the following insurgent commanders in Cuba have been killed and come to life again several times: Quesada, twice; Figueredo, Aguilera, Feraiso, Cisneros, each once; Marmol twice, and Lorda, three times! At this rate the phœnix is nowhere.

Denver gave Colfax a silver pitcher. He accepted it. Not to have done so would have been so pointed a rebuke of the President that no under officer except Maj. Gen. Thomas has been hardy enough to administer it.

A man in Bridgeport, says an exchange, formerly a soldier, has a walking cane composed of four hundred and sixty three pieces of leather, and made from a pair of old boots owned and worn by President Lincoln previous to his assassination.

The returns from eighty counties of Kentucky give Tate, the democratic candidate for Treasurer, a majority of 49,525. The lower house consists of eighty one democrats and five republicans.

A San Francisco letter, dated August 4, says: "All we want in California is money and muscle—of take it we have had a surplus. Of amusements we have had a surfeit."

Senter's majority is 62,000, with nineteen counties to hear from. The State Senate, composed of twenty-five members, stands twenty-one conservatives and four conservative republicans. The House of Representatives, composed of eighty-four members, stand sixty-seven conservatives, nine radicals and six conservative republicans, with two districts to hear from.

In a speech, at Milan, on the state of affairs, Mr. Etheridge announced his opposition to paying any portion of the twenty million debt, contracted under the Brownlow administration. A party entertaining these views has been gradually forming for some months past.

A correspondent of the New York Sun has had an interview with John Quincy Adam. The latter will accept the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts, if nominated, though he does not favor territorial expansions, thinks the Democrats will soon control the Southern States, that the Fifteenth Amendment is invalid, that signs of dissolution are apparent in the Republican ranks, that Democrats should accept negro suffrage and other inevitable results of the war, and nominate John T. Hoffman for President.

MORE COAL DISCOVERIES IN INDIANA.—The Indianapolis Journal says Prof. Cox, the State geologist, has traced the bed of block coal recently found in Clay, Vigo and Parke counties to a point in Fountain county, about six miles south of Attica. It thus appears that this bed of block coal, the value of which can scarcely be over-estimated, extends in one solid mass six miles wide and three or four feet thick, a distance of nearly one hundred miles in length. It may be still longer, as it has not been fully surveyed and defined. In addition to this, Professor Cox has discovered an extensive bed of semi-block coal, partaking largely of the bituminous quality, in Fountain county. It is in three seams, having an aggregate thickness of twelve to fifteen feet.

A French company has offered to construct a telegraph line from Lisbon and Gibraltar to England and America, on a twenty years' concession, without a subsidy.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Recent dispatches telegraphed upon information furnished by Col. Edwards, were wrongly printed in many Southern papers. The facts as furnished were: "The negro Turner has been suspended and Mr. Washington, former incumbent, restored to the Post office at Macon, Ga.

Cubans here have advices up to the 5th inst., containing Gen. Jordan's report of the engagement near Holguin.

Valmaseda being reinforced determined upon surprising the Cubans. Gen. Jordan was fully advised of the movement and prepared to meet it. He advanced a small force to lead Valmaseda into an ambuscade; the stratagem having succeeded and Valmeseda's forces being thrown into confusion, Jordan charged, and forced them into a disorderly retreat. It is Jordan's impression that the negroes broke on the first attack.

This fight destroys Valmeseda's army giving to the Cubans control of the entire Holguin District. The Spanish loss is estimated at 170 killed and wounded and over 700 captured and deserted.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14.—Commodore Jarvis, aged 74 years, is dead.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Marshal Barlow was, last night, escorted to Staten Island ferry by a Company of U. S. soldiers. Judge Mc Munn adjourned proceedings in the Pratt case to Monday morning time, whereby it is hoped a collision may be avoided.

TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Aug 14.—The Dallas [illegible] township is creating general interest. Etheridge and Andrew Johnson are the prominent candidates for the position.

It is understood that the Banner, to-morrow will take strong grounds against Johnson.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 14.—Prospects of the cotton crops are less favorable. Abundant to yield to this vicinity same as last year.

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, Aug. 14.—Count Valmaseda captured a rebel convoy, moving towards Holguin. The rebels fled after a short fight; their commander, Jordan escaping. This is considered the most important capture of the war.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug 14.—Stocks irregular and feverish. Money steady at 6 to 7; sterling 9; Gold 34; 62's 23½; N. Cs 86; new 49; Va's ex coupon, 54; new 60; Tenn's, 62; new 57; La's, old, 71½; Levees 85.

Saturday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—Further Cuban advices report the slaves through the Island as exhibiting symptoms of insubordination and sympathy with Cespedes. They are joining Cespedes in large numbers, thereby securing emancipation, proclaimed by the Provisional government. They make, it is said, good soldiers. Quesada is nearly ready to attack Nuevitas with certainty of success. Unless the Spaniards are reinforced it is believed they will avoid a contest.

Vessels sufficient to remove the garrison are concentrating before Nuevitas.

Revenue to-day $295 000.

A large distillery in Philadelphia has been seized. The storekeeper and gauger were arrested.

The pay of assistant assessors for Tennessee, North Carolina and the Gulf States is reduced 50 cents per day.

Rear Admiral Davis has been ordered to make arrangements for a survey of the Isthmus of Darien for the purpose of ascertaining the cost, &c., of a ship canal.

The Times says the question of enforcing the test oath in the case of the members elect of the Virginia Legislature, has been decided affirmatively by the Attorney General, and it will be accordingly enforced by Gen. Canby.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Aug 14—It is stated on good authority, that Gen Canby will, within ten days, issue his election proclamation convening the Legislature, applying the iron clad oath to the members, and where a member elect cannot take the oath, giving his seat to the candidate who received the next highest vote.

The news produces different feelings among different parties. The Wells Republicans who form nine-tenths of what was the Republican party rejoice over it.

The Democrats are confident that the effect is to give the State to the Democracy in 1872, and permanently thereafter, and the Walker True Republicans, who elected their ticket on the idea that among the whites there was to be no more disfranchisement and test oath, are very sick.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Aug. 14.—Marshal Niel Minister of War, is dead.

Several additional bands of Carlists have appeared in different parts of the country but by no means formidable.

VIENNA, Aug. 14.—The Presse the government organ says, that business relations between the Turkish and Lombardy Railroad are entirely broken off.

Baron Von Beust in addressing the Reichrath in defence of the Budget said the maintenance of peace would be easier if the defensive forces of Austria were not diminished.

COLLISION

PORT HURON, Aug. 14.—The Silver Spray and Comet collided, to-day, and the Silver Spray sunk in 15 minutes. The people were all saved.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Aug 14.—The Milwaukie and St. Paul train ran off the track to-day, killing the engineer and wounding several others.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14.—The train on the Central R. R., ran off the track to-day, killing the engineer and fireman. One man had both legs severed and others were hurt.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Money easy 6 to 7; bank statement unfavorable, total reserve showing a decrease of over $2,000,000; sterling quiet 9½ to 10; Governments inactive 2½ to 4½; Georgia sixes, 83; Alabama eights 92; Stocks closed dull and unsettled; Gold 34¼ to 34½.

Social Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" Is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Reduces Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

Use nothing but Lyon's Kalliaron to Dress the Hair.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine all else.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a safer reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends,—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cases are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring them to regular action to health, and correcting wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic, and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and in every quarter of the globe, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although called Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, nor do more, than assure the public that its qualities are fully sustained.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth. To say nothing of those humors that are hereditary, we can easily see how the Blood may become bad from imperfect Digestion or failure of excretion, and how this may influence the process of Nutrition, and thus influence all the functional activities of the body.

GONE BEFORE.

There's a beautiful face in the silent air,
Which follows me ever and near,
With smiling eyes and amber hair,
With voiceless lips, yet with breath of prayer,
That I feel, but cannot hear.

The dimpled hand, and ringlet of gold,
Lie low in a marble sleep;
I stretch my arms for the clasp of old,
But the empty air is strangely cold,
And my vigil alone I keep.

There's a sinless brow with a radiant crown
And a cross laid down in the dust;
There's a smile where never a shade comes now,
And tears no more from those dear eyes flow,
So sweet in their innocent trust.

Ah, well! and summer is coming again,
Singing her same old song;
But, oh! it sounds like a sob of pain,
As it floats in the sunshine and the rain,
O'er hearts of the world's great throng.

There's a beautiful region above the skies
And I long to reach its shore,
For I know I shall find my treasure there,
The laughing eyes and amber hair,
Of the loved one gone before.

Valuable Real Estate in Greene County, North Carolina.

DESIROUS of changing my residence, I offer for sale my plantation, known as the

"STREETER FARM."

It contains 1,900 acres, 1,200 of which are cleared, the remainder is well timbered, with Pine, Oak and Hickory. The plantation is under good fence. Marl and Swamp Muck, for compositing, INEXHAUSTIBLE. This is justly regarded as one of the finest Cotton Farms in North Carolina.

There is on the premises a large, commodious Dwelling House, which is being repaired and refitted, together with all necessary out-buildings, including cabins for laborers.

I will also sell with the land aforesaid, all my Mules, Horses and other stock; farming implements, as well as household and kitchen furniture.

This is a rare opportunity for any one wishing to purchase a first-class Plantation in the South, with everything deemed necessary for the immediate commencement of farming operations.

Terms reasonable. Those wishing to purchase can apply, for further information, to my Attorney, G. W. Johnston, Greenville, N. C., or to the undersigned.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or shower bath, sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	2 50

Children under ten years of age and colored servants, half price. No charge for infants or children under two years of age.

Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the as's of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets the price the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a home-stead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND SIX—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents trust already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address
